

CONCORD.

Death of Lester S. Richards, an Aged Veteran.

By the death of Lester S. Richards, which occurred at his home here Friday morning, Concord loses one of its oldest and most respected citizens. Lester S. Richards was born in Beacom, Clinton county, New York, March 1, 1825, son of Joseph and Eliza (Brooks) Richards, of a family of five children. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. J. M. Conant of South Framingham, Mass. Mr. Richards was thrice married. His first wife was Nancy E. Stanley of North Monro, N. H. Three children were born to them, Willie and George, who died in early childhood, and Oliver S., who died in 1893. Mrs. Richards passed away May 13, 1872. Mr. Richards was married November 14, 1872, to Cynthia T. Reed of this place, who died April 18, 1884. July 7, 1885, he was married to Hattie L. Haviland, who survives him. Most of Mr. Richards' life has been spent in this and surrounding towns. About 15 years ago he came to this place and became engaged in the mercantile business, which he continued as long as his health would permit. Ten years ago his sight failed him and for the past eight years he has been totally blind, gradually failing in health and strength. The past two years he has been very feeble and passed away from exhaustion at the advanced age of 85 years, 5 months and 11 days. During the years in which he was so dependent he was tenderly cared for by his wife and step-son. Mr. Richards served in the War of the Rebellion, enlisting from St. Johnsbury August 12, 1862, as 2nd lieutenant in Co. A, 11th Vermont Heavy Artillery. He was afterwards promoted to the rank of 1st lieutenant and was engaged in several of the hardest battles of the war. The funeral was held at his late home Sunday at 2 p. m., the Rev. L. F. Fortney of Plainfield, a former pastor, officiating, assisted by Rev. Grant Van Blarcom, and Rev. E. P. Lee of Waterford, who being a comrade, spoke of his war record. A mixed quartette, Mrs. Clarence Cutting, Miss Louise Chapman, J. G. Chapman and Herbert Daniels rendered appropriate selections and Mr. Daniels sang "The Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." Woodbury post, G. A. R., of which Mr. Richards was a member, and Woodbury W. R. C. attended in a body. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. The bearers were six comrades, C. L. Stacy, O. B. Cutting, W. C. Pratt, H. A. Joslyn, J. K. Bonnett and Andrew Morgan. Those called here from away to attend the funeral were, George Crane, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vance and son, George, from Danville, Mr. and Mrs. Brook Ingalls, Charles Woodbury, E. C. Potter and Mr. Flanagan of St. Johnsbury.

The republican caucus to elect nominees for the September election will be held at the town hall Saturday afternoon. Miss Hattie James was called to Barnet Thursday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Amos Somers. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gero and son of St. Johnsbury were in town Sunday.

A Chain and Its Links

In telephoning there are three links in the chain that constitutes "good service": 1. The person calling. 2. The operator. 3. The person called.

No matter how much any one or any two of these links do to develop good service. THE RESULT IS DETERMINED BY THE MEASURE OF CO-OPERATION OF THE THIRD. A chain is no stronger than its weakest link.

If the person calling fails to consult the catalogue and gives a wrong number, the operator inevitably repeats the error. If the person called fails to answer promptly and the caller leaves the telephone, naturally "there is no one on the line."

Being human, the operator--the third link--is liable to err occasionally, but careful analysis demonstrates that she is not fairly chargeable with many of the difficulties frequently ascribed to her.

IF LINK NO. 1 GIVES THE RIGHT NUMBER AND CALLS DISTINCTLY, AND LINK NO. 3 ANSWERS PROMPTLY, the Telephone Company will be responsible for its part of the chain.

The Passumpsic Telephone Company is one link in the chain of the great "Bell System", and in the states of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont and Massachusetts is connected with 300,000 telephones.
